

Eastlands Primary School

School Improvement - Protective Behaviours Programme

Part of our school PSHE curriculum we teach the Protective Behaviours Programme. Here are the core principles of the programme. These link closely to the new behaviour policy, equality standards and child safeguarding indicators.

RIGHTS OF THE CHILD

All children have the rights that follow, no matter what colour, what class, what sex or what religion they are:

Safeguarding is Everybody's Responsibility

School Improvement - Here are ideas from our children.

2023 Year 6 - 'lessons after break feel slightly too long and changing it would make lessons less boring near the end'

'more about the wider world in lesson and assemblies'

Mrs Warrington will talk to teachers about timetables.

2023 - Year 5 'We enjoy special day and events week as it make learning more interesting.'

Thank you for this feedback.

This has been discussed and training on this e.g. sensory circuits

2023 Year 1- 'We would like more about animals and nature and we want to do more things outside of the classroom.'

Miss Shipp will talk to Year 1 teachers about this.

School allotment is having the pond and dipping platform updated.

2023 Year 6 - 'More group projects and posters like we did when studying the eleven gurus'

Mrs Hope will talk to Year 5 & 6 teachers about this idea. Thank you.

School Councillors to ask for ideas from class mates

2023 Year 1 - 'More working with our partners and using things to help us learn like cubes.'

Mrs Edwards will talk to Year 1 teachers about this.

Good progress!

2023- Year EYFS 'less time sitting on the carpet for maths and phonics.'

Miss Shipp will look at this to see if children can have less time sitting on the carpet.

Good progress!

2023 - Year 2 'More writing in books in the afternoon.'

Miss Guy will look at this idea. Thank you.

2023 Year 3 & 4- 'Could there be a little break in the afternoons to split up the learning?'

'more use of technology'

Mr Northedge will talk to teachers about this idea. Thank you.

Good progress!

We all have the right to feel safe all the time.
